I am happy to share I will be in Houston for a short visit and very much look forward to seeing you and enjoy a beautiful Despacho Ceremony together! Let's connect with our intentions and align body, mind, heart and soul through our energy centers of Munay (Power of Love and appreciation for all creation), Yachay (Wisdom and inner knowing) and Lankay (Creative Power and Service) as we honor Pachamama and bring ourselves back in alignment with the natural rhythms of creation
